Accredited Ministry Development provides academic opportunities to Church of God of Prophecy leaders on their journey toward spiritual maturity, fruitful ministry, and participation in God's mission.

We have expanded our collaboration with the Pentecostal Theological Seminary to include now fully online degree options for students pursuing a master's degree! Graduate options include the Master of Arts in Counseling and Master of Arts in Church Ministries degrees.

Program Highlights

- Courses begin in June with the course Pentecostal Foundations
- Courses offered one at a time and available completely online
- Select courses featuring live instruction and classroom interaction via videoconferencing
- Program available for individuals with a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution*
- Church of God of Prophecy scholarships reduce the per-course tuition over 50 percent
- Additional scholarships are available to students who qualify, visit www.cogopamd.org to see all scholarship opportunities
